Writing Section

Q. 3. Comprehension.

Read the following passage carefully and write the answers of the activities given below.

P. V. Sindhu or Pusrla Cenkata Sindhu is an ace shuttler and silver medalist at 2016 Rio Summer Olympics. This young badminton player from Andhra Pradesh was born to volleyball players P.V. Ramanna and P. Vijaya in the year 1995. Her father was honoured with Arjuna Award for having displayed excellence in his sport. One of the youngest and talented badminton players of the contemporary times, Sindhu has featured in top 10 in the world badminton rankings for the most part of 2014.

P. V. Sindhu started playing badminton from the age of 8, after she drew inspiration from Pullela Gopichand's victory in the All England Open Badminton Championship in 2001. That's the reason why she chose badminton over volleyball although her parents were professional volleyball players. Her initial apprenticeship started with Mehboob Ali at the badminton courts of Indian Railway institute of Signal Engineering and Telecommunications in Secunderabad. Later, she joined Pullela Gopichand's badminton academy to further enhance her sporting skills.

Truth

Sticks and stones may break my bones,
But words can also hurt me.
Stones and sticks
break only skin, While words are ghosts that haunt me.
Slant and curved the fall Word-seords
To pierce and stick inside me.
Bats and bricks may ache through bones.
But words can mortify me.
Pain from words has left its scar
On mind and heart
that's tender
Cuts and Bruises now
Have healed;
It's words that I remember.
